Chairman Shays to Hold June 6th Hearing on Balancing Civil Liberties with National Security Needs; 9/11 Commission Members Kean and Hamilton to Testify

(Washington, DC)—Congressman Christopher Shays (R-CT), Chairman of the Subcommittee on National Security, Emerging Threats, and International Relations will convene an oversight hearing to examine the implementation status of the 9/11 Commission recommendations, with particular focus on civil liberties.

The Honorable Thomas H. Kean and the Honorable Lee H. Hamilton are expected to discuss H.R. 5017, Ensuring Implementation of the 9/11 Commission Report Act, for which they have jointly offered a letter of support.

Additionally, witnesses from the White House Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board and five family members of 9/11 victims have been invited to discuss the recommendations put forth in 9/11 Commission Report and their implementation.

The hearing, “9/11 Commission Recommendations: Balancing Civil Liberties and Security” is scheduled for Tuesday, June 6, at 2:00 pm in room 2154 Rayburn House Office Building in Washington, DC.
